

Sentence Diagraming

Review

---

Name _____

Simple Sentences I

(subjects, action verbs, direct objects, indirect objects, linking verbs, predicate nouns, predicate adjectives)

1. Can you believe it?
2. The man was my father.
3. Close the door.
4. I gave the boy a penny.
5. Are you writing a letter?

Simple Sentences II

(all of the above plus adverbs, adjectives, prepositional phrases, and appositives)

1. The large bus with crazy driver narrowly missed a parked car today.
2. The pitcher, a rookie, was a member of our church.

3. I was very, very, surprised.

4. The great Bozo, a gifted magician, visited our school yesterday.

5. Can you give me a sip of your soda now?

Simple Sentences with Compound Parts

(all of the above but with compound parts)

1. The spider and the ant worked during the summer.

2. The waiter, a neat fellow, brought our drinks and served our food.

3. The manager and the player rested and thought about the upcoming game.

4. I ran to the bus stop and caught the bus.

5. Our friend gave us a ride and offered us some extra cash.

Compound Sentences

(all of the above but in compound sentences)

1. I went to the dentist, and he cleaned my teeth.
2. The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life.
3. The Lord is my stronghold and my sure defense, and he will be my Savior.
4. Joe handcuffed the crooks, and Frank put them in the Batmobile.
5. Are you spending the money, or are you keeping it?