

Sentence Diagraming

Test

Name _____

Simple Sentences I

(subjects, action verbs, direct objects, indirect objects, linking verbs, predicate nouns, predicate adjectives)

1. Do you want this cake?
2. The player is a rookie.
3. Hand these out.
4. I sent my mother a letter.
5. Are you saving any money?

Simple Sentences II

(all of the above plus adverbs, adjectives, prepositional phrases, and appositives)

1. The young motorist was waiting patiently for the light yesterday.
2. The reporter, a woman, was dressed very fashionably.

3. I was very, very, tired.

4. Calmly, I lifted the lid of the big, green box.

5. Can you get him a piece of paper?

Simple Sentences with Compound Parts

(all of the above but with compound parts)

1. The King and the Queen listened to their subjects.

2. The astronaut, a short man, put on his space suit and walked toward the shuttle.

3. The manager and the player were tense before the game.

4. I wisely saved my tickets for another night and happily went to bed.

5. Our friend gave us a ride and offered us some extra cash.

Compound Sentences

(all of the above but in compound sentences)

1. The clock on the wall ticked loudly, but the birds in the tree were louder.
2. The car in the garage looks excellent, but the one down the street is better.
3. I am healthy, but my partner is sick.
4. The winner of the race, an athletic accountant, drank some Gatorade; he was tired.
5. This is the last sentence!